ST. CLOUD HOTEL, CORNER OF SECOND AND JEFFERSON STREETS .- Much suprise has been manifested by many persons who have lately visited our city, to find the St. Cloud Motel one of the very best and most comfortable hotels in Louisville, and the prices very moderate. It is furnished in first rate style, and the table spread with every luxury the most fastidious epicure could desire. Every one fond of good eating should make a trial of this house, as there is no knowledge worth anything unless founded on truth, The friendly and kind reception of its most gentlemanly proprietor, Mr. James N. a full expression of the wishes of the Democratic States in the choice of a candidate. Will that rule either protect the Sot th, or give expression to the wishes of the Democratic States?

In 1856, fifteen States gave actual Democratic majorities, and fifteen States gave actual Democratic minorities. The Democratic ticket was in an actual minority in California of 3,527; in Illinois, 28,285; in New Jersey, of 510. The elections, except it California, that have lately been held, hold out little encouragement to the Democratic party. We must, therefore, carefully scrutinize the vote in 1866, and from it deduce the chances of our success in 1860.

FIGHT WITH A BEAR.—We in Minnesota are not without our bear adventures. One of these, which came near being embellished with a tragical endng, happened recently on the road from Pembina to Otter Tail, near Red Lake river. A lusty half breed, named Montreuil, a young savage of gigan-tic stature and enormous strength, employed in carrying the mail from Pembina to Wild Rice river, on his way up, in the middle of September last, encountered a hugh bear nesting in one of the innumerable little popular hammocks that are scat-tered over that portion of country. Montreuil and his companion were on foot, and had between them but one gun. Confident of his aim Montreuil approached within thirty paces of the bear and fired. The angry animal, enraged but not disabled by the wound, broke from his den, and turned angrily upon the daring hunter Scarcely less forceing apon the daring hunter. Scarcely less ferocious than the bear, Montreuil, taking an axe from his companion's hand, boldly awaited the onset, and as Bruin leaped upon him he dealt him a blow, which Bruin, who had evidently been taking lessons in the noble art, parried with his paws, wresting the axe from his hands. Then Montreuil took to his heels and plunged into a lake near by, when, as he sunk into its muddy margin, the bear pounced upon him, and proceeded deliberately to chew him up. He tore him with his paws, and tore him s jaws, and slapped him in his face, and urned him over and over, and shook him, and when the satistical bear had left his prey, his companion finding him still alive, carried him to a grove near by. He staunched the terrible flow of blood as much as possible, and as he had no means of removing him from there, he built a fire pear him, and waiting till he had revived a little, left some food within his reach, and then started off to overtake a train that had recently passed, left some should be taught to respect to the contraction. ceeding on his journey, with scarcely a hope of saving his fast ebbing life, when fortunately they were met by a Red river train coming on its way theman connected with the Northwestern Exploring Expedition. The Doctor, taking off the bloody garments, found the poor fellow terribly mangled—almost literally "chawed up," to use the wayds of a spectator. His wounds were dressed as well as commented to the control of the co as well as circumstances would permit, and he was conveyed by quiet stages to Pembina, where, by last accounts, there was little hope of his recovery.—St. Paul Pioneer.

ontains an article entitled "Monument to Maffit." t says that "the Nashville Christian Advocate declares that there is evidence of a disposition in the public mind to revive the memory of John New-and Maffit, and that many are bold to say that the verdict which doomed his last days to obscurity and leaves his name unhonored, was 'wrong, all from South Carolina to Texas, writes as follows on the St. Francis street church, was so kind as to bring a carriage and take us to see poor Maffit's grave. It was sad to stand beside it, and see the grave of him who peculiarly loved the beautiful, marked only by a few bricks, and not even a rose or a voilet or a forget me not planted there. As I gazed upon it the thought occurred to me, 'It every person whom Mr. Maffit has received into the church, or who has in any way received spiritual benefit from his preaching, should contribute not the experiment be worth trying? And as he received me into the church, may I not have the pleasure and the privilege of subscribing the first dollar? If there are any among the thousands who once sat enraptured while he spoke, who are now willing to contribute one dollar to this monument, let them send the money to Rev. A. S. Andrews, pastor of the St. Francis Church, Mobile."

"The Christian Advocate also gives the following characteristic anecdote of an old Kentuckian, long familiar with hunting and border warfare, who, being present at a conversation where Marclaimed: 'I tell you what it is, gentlemen, say what you please about your Bascombs and Waughs and Caperses, but in the big day coming Maflit will bring as many skelps as any of 'em."

THE HEROES OF SOLFERINO .- A correspondent of the N. Y. Times thus describes French heroes at a horse race : More than twenty titled members of the Jockey Club who went through the late Italian campaign are in the company, and demonstrate by their wounds their personal bravery. Here is the young Viscount de Talon, who, in the last famous charge of the Chasseurs d'Afrique in the Austrian hollow squares at Solferino, plunged forward alone into an Austrian column, received several halls at into an Austrian column, received several balls at once, one of which was discharged from an officer's pistol, held almost against his forehead, and which passed, by an extraordinary hazard, around his head instead of through it, tearing the skin up and leaving a trace like that of lightning. He was rescued by his men, and is now recovered from who distinguished himself in the late war, and who is about to marry Mlle. Laffitte, a niece of the who is about to marry Mile. Lamute, a nicee of the great banker; and here, too, is the Marquis de Larochejaquelain, his arm yet in a sling from wounds received in a hand to hand fight at Solferino. Thomas Hayden

This is a contest for the custody of an orphan member that great sale of piece goods, demestic On the 18th of October, Mr. Hayden came into this court and was appointed and gave bond as guardian of two children, one of them John Casey, representing that they were without relations in this country and had no estate. On the 17th, Callacher, and the country and had no estate. allagher representing to the court that he had, four months ago, obtained John from the alms-house for the purpose of having him bound to him and rearing him, and that he and his wife were now attached to the boy and he to them, asked and obtained a rule against Hayden to show cause why the order appointing him guardian should not be set eside. ause why the order a hould not be set aside.

It may be assumed that each party has proved, by a competent number of witnesses, his fitness to rear a boy in moral and honest courses. As I have no doubt about my power to set aside the order for the guardianship, and as there is no estate for the supervision of the guardian, and as the parties are all before the court, I will consider the questions as though the parties were each for the first time now here simultaneously presenting their claims.

each states that they desire to raise the boy, give him an education, and learn him a trade. Gallahim an education, and learn him a trade. Gallagher relies that Le has for four months had the care of the child, who has lived in his family; that the boy has become attached to him and his wife, and they to him. Hayden relies upon the fact that the parents of John were Irish Catholics, and that he (affiant) is also, and he desires to rear him in the religious faith of his parents. The boy, who is himself introduced and examined by the Court, is unusually sprightly and intelligent for one of his years; says he is between ten and eleven years old; was placed at St. Thomas, a Catholic school, some two years age: left as, a Catholic school, some two years ago; left there, came to Louisville, and was placed in the alms house, where he was taught to read by one f the inmates. There he remained until about four months ago; was taken from there by Galla-gher, with whom he has ever since resided; has been well-clad, kindly treated, and generally well cared for. His occupation was splitting kindling wood, making fires, rocking the cradle, and bringing water; that he has been taught reading by Mr. and Mrs. Gallagher, and is frequently required to read the Bible to them; that he attends a Meth-odist Sunday school regularly; is pleased with his situation, and wants to stay; does not know Mr. Hayden, and does not want to live with him. His statements are corroborated by several witnesses, and contradicted by none. Neither party is of any kin to John.

Two witnesses are introduced who say they are members of a Catholic conference or which resolved that this boy should be taken and educated, and that Mr. Hayden should take the guardianship of him for that purpose.

Under this state of facts, what are the dictates if humanity and what the principles of law that should govern my decision? should govern my decision?

The boy, though not of the legal age to choose a guardian, speaks in such a free and intelligent manner as to challenge the court to consider his feelings and wishes. Mr. Hayden is a stranger to feelings and wishes. Mr. Hayden is a stranger to him. He rests his claim upon the right to give such direction to the mind of the child as that he will adopt the faith of his parents; and, for this purpose, asks me to hand him over to him, notwithstanding the aversion the child exhibits to such a direction. He says the parents desired it, but there is no proof of it. To let the question of the delayed and training of this child he decided. f custody and training of this child be decided y the religious faith of its parents, or that of hose seeking to keep and train him, would be riolative of the rules of justice and law, and night result in gross injustice to the unfortunate ubject of this litigation. To decide that one nan should leave him such an idea, must be ab-lorrent alike to Catholic and Protestant, Christian and Infidel. tian and Infidel.

It is true Mr. Hayden proves that the Catholic Church sent this boy to St. Thomas College; but it is also proved that he left there some two years ago, and was vagabondizing in Louisville until he it is also proved that he left there some two years ago, and was vagabondizing in Louisville until he was committed to the almshouse, and there is no proof that an attempt was made to replace him at school until a few weeks ago.

Now, as Gallagher voluntarily took charge of the boy, clad him, fed him, is teaching and caring for him, and by his depostructs in interest. for him, and by his deportment in this motion, evinces an attachment for him, and a sincere desire to keep him; think he should be allowed to He proves by those intimate in his family that boy shows an evident and sincere desire to re-main with him, and an evident aversion to going to live with one who is an entire stranger to him. The guardian's bend imposes no obligations upon the guardian, either to support or educate the ward, nor to learn him a trade.

heretical, the son should be taught to respect, believe and adopt it. To decide that a Protestant should rear and educate him because that was the true faith, would be to decide what no human genius of our institutions forbid and condemn the idea of letting into any of the departments of the element of religion. But an appeal to the Judiciary of the country to hear and determine the rights of parties, and as in this case to decide upon certain grounds of religious faith, perhaps irrevocably, the fate of this orphan cannot meet, much less can it meet a response in the hearts of Kentuckians, much less can it meet with favorable consideration from a court of institute taken by we. The deliver of Callery of the country of th law, justice, and humanity is superior, and the order appointing Hayden guardian of John Casey is set aside, and the bond held for But Gallagher must now enter into apprenticeship to learn the boy a trade, and give this Court to some fit person who will.

POLICE COURT.

Monday, Oct. 24.

Stealing Socks.—John Casey was up for stealing socks and combs from John Crabb & Co., at the fire on Saturday night. Some of the socks were found in his possession. Dr. Anderson testified that he had known the accused for years, and that he bore the character of an honest man. Mr. T. Shanks concurred in this estimate of his FBLONY.—Chris Harper was arraigned for felony in feloniously appropriating a small lot of jew-elry at the fire on Saturday night. The proof was held conclusive, and as the amount exceed $4 he was held in $400 to answer the charge felony, at the next term of the Criminal Court. ANOTHER CASE.—John Klepph, another of the chaps who was at the fire, picked up a lot of spools and buckles. They were, however, laying around loose in the street, and hardly worth the trouble of picking up. The Judge considered his conduct reprehensible, as he ought to have endeavored to save the property for the unfortunate owner instead of depriving him of it. He is a poor tailor and has a wife and two children. $100 for three ing out of the alley on East street. The other man run off, but they nabbed Preston. On looking into the alley, close by, they found an old quilt and two chickens in a handkerchief. Preston was discharged from jail on Friday last, got into had company, and thence into jail. He said he was unfortunate, but not a thief. He was perhe was unfortunate, but not a thief. He was permitted to go under penalty of the workhouse one year if he didn't evaporate by 12 o'clock M.

PETIT LARGENY.—Pat. McDonough, a "hoy" with a rich brogue, who averred that he "niver stole in my life," was caught on Saturday night at the fire with a bottle of tonic medicine in his hand. He said a fireman told him to take it, but no confidence was reposed in his statement—$100 for petit larceny.

Paying Himself.—The laborer is worthy of his hire; but fellows who volunteer to carry out goods from a burning building have no right to pay themselves without leave of the owner. James Albertson had done this identical thing—picked up a bundle of socks and was carrying it off. The up a bundle of socks and was carrying it off. The value is less than $4 - $100 for petit larceny.

Some Pistol.—Thos. Babcock was caught on Saturday night with a pistol in his pocket. He said Geo. Wadsworth handed it to him at the "free and Easy," and told him to take it home.—Wadsworth admitted the fact, whereupon he was made principal in the case and Babcock introduced as a witness. On his testimeny Mr. W. was held in $100 to answer a misdemeanor.

Obtaining Monry Under False Pretenses.—The case of John Keynock, for alleged obtaining money under false pretenses, was laid over until Wednesday.

THREE PERSONS KILLED IN A DUEL BY ONE MAN.—A major of the rural militia, sixty-five years old, near Havana, Cuba, recently fought a duel with swords, and killed his adversary, a young man. The second then took up the quarrel, and he too was killed by a thrust of the major's aword; a cousin of the principal next stepped forward, and was also killed; lastly, a friend of all forward, and was also killed; lastly, a friend of all the others felt bound to avenge their deaths, but upon receiving a rather severe wound, declared himself satisfied. The victorious duelist, in full uniform, went to Havana and presented himself to the Captain-General, who, without depriving him of his sword, pointed out a room for him to occupy, and placed a "guard of honor" at the door. It is believed that he will be acquitted by the military court before which he is to be tried.

OST TION AND ACTION OF THE AMERICAN MINISTER Mr. Bruce to the Earl of Malmesbury.

My Lord: Your lordship has been informed in my previous dispatches that the American Minister, Mr. Ward, had associated himself with us in our demand to exchange the ratifications of the treaty at Pekin, and had further stated to the Imperial Comissioners at Shanghai that he was instructed to deliver in person the letter of the President of the United States of America to the Emperor of China. He could only claim these Emperor of China. He could only claim these privileges under the most favored nation clause, and, therefore, awaited the results of the attempts made to detain us at Shanghai. When they failed, he expressed his intention of going to the Petho, and received an invitation from the Commissioners to accompany as there.

On the 24th he crossed the bar of the Peiho in a small steamer, with the intention of proceeding to the booms and making the attempt to advance up the river, leaving it to the Chinese to fire upon him if they chose to do so. His steamer, howev-er, grounded before reaching them, and was with culty got off by the gunboats, after considera delay. He therefore contented himself with dimedity got on by the gunboats, after considera-ble delay. He therefore contented himself with demanding a passage, and was met by a refusal on the part of the milita, who gave themselves out as the garrison of the forts. He remained at the river during the attack, determined to push up had we opened a way through the barriers and it is very gratifying to me to bear testimony to the friendly feeling and assistance we derived from himself and flag officer Tatnall on that day.

After he had decided on abandoning the attempt to reach Pekin, Mr. Ward considered himself bound to effect, if possible, the exchange of ratifications under the provisions of the American treaty. He had received no communication since his arrival from the Imperial Government, and addressed a letter to the Government, and ddressed a letter to the Governor-General, expressing his wish to proceed to Pekin and ex-change the ratification there. This letter he dis-patched in his steamer to Pe-tang ho, with his secretary and interpreter. Linclose a memoran-dum, showing the nature of the approach to Pe-tang-ho, and its defenses. I have heard indirectly that when the boat from the steamer approached the shore most of the villagers fled. With difficulty two men were found, to whom the object of the visit was explained and the letter delivered, on their under-taking to forward it to the Governor General, whose place of residence they would not, how-ever, divulge. They, at the same time, urged the bearers to return, without delay, to the boat, to avoid being attacked by the horsemen who were seen in the neighborhood. It was fortunate that they did so; for they were chased by the cavalry, o of whom pursued them into the water. Soon after a junk came off with provisions, and message from the authority of the place to say hat the letter had been forwarded, and that an answer would be shortly received. On the 5th of July Mr. Ward informed me that the Governor-General had appointed Friday, the 8th, for an in-terview at Pe-tang-ho. Having left on the 7th, I do not as yet know the results do not as yet know the result.

I do not think that the Chinese will make difficulties about exchanging the ratifications of the American treaty. The conditions under which the American Minister is alone entitled to visit the capital contain nothing offensive to Chinese pride, or inconsistent with its claims of universal systems. inconsistent with its claims of national s rity. The treaty does not open the Yang-tze iver, or any port to the north of Shanghai, no oes it give the right to travel in the interior of ountry. It leaves also untouched the important uestion of transit duties. The true policy of the chinese would be, therefore, to receive Mr. Ward n a friendly manner, in the hope of inducing him o act as mediator.

Mr. Ward's position is one of considerable difficulty; nor do I see, after our unsuccessful attempt at the Peiho, that any course was open save the one he has adopted. He has acted cordially and one he has adopted. He has acted cordinity and frankly in the spirit of his declarations to me at Hong Kong; and it is a matter of satisfaction to me that his concert in our previous proceedings is a strong argument in favor of the line of conuct pursued by M. de Bourboulon and myself .-

[Correspondence of the N. Y. Times.] Paris, Thursday, Qct. 6, 1859.
You will have already heard of the audden death of the American Minister at Paris, the Hon.

Mr. Mason had never recovered completely from his first stock of applexy which scurred four years ago, and which then came after taking leave of a party of visitors who had dined at his house, and in his usual health. At one o'clock in the morning Mrs. Mason heard an unusual noise in her husband's room, and approaching his bedside found him in convulsions and unconscious. He remained in this condition until he died, eight hours later, suffering intenseting although unconscious of surrounding objects.

Mr. Anderson, of Virginia, who married a month ago, one of the Misses Mason, is happily still in Paris, and will take charge of the family. He has written home to the eldest son of the deceased, that he need not come out, as he will charge himself with the duty of settling up the affairs, and the bringing home of the family the affairs, and the bringing home of the family. STARTLING REVELATIONS!! A dispatch from Harper's Ferry to the Balt's nore Exchange, referring to the discovery of Brown's papers, says: ained, not only of the plans and hopes of this formidable insurrectionary organization, but of the indisputable fact of its extension throughout the Northern and Western States, from the influ-ential citizens of whom the treasonable movement has received its sustaining support and en

In a trunk, supposed to have belonged to Capt.

Brown, was found seven small though elaborate maps of as many different States, bearing peculiar marks, which would seem to indicate that the points of attack, and the course of the insurrectionary movement through the South, had already been carefully determined upon by this well organized and confident league of traitors. Certain counties in the seven States, of which only these counties in the seven States. ounties in the seven States, of which only these daps were obtained, hear cross marks formed by pen, and in several instances as if to command a pen, and in several instances as it to command greater particularity of attention, or to suggest perhaps more available points of attack, circular lines are drawn around the crosses. Certain counties in South Carolina, Georgia, Alabama, and Misaissippi, are thus designated. In Louisiana, Florida, Tennessee, and Kentucky, there were no counties marked.

The modus operandi of the learned professor is thus described by the agent who arrested him: "Madam," said the naturalist to his listener, "this animal, which is also known by the name of the seahorse, deen not much frequent the society of man; it amuses itself in the water and in marshy grounds, and grows fat there like you or me. #### LOUISVILLE TUESDAY, ..... OCTOBER 25, 1859.

The United States Senatorship The State Legislature, at its next sessi be called upon to select a United Strates Senator in place of Hon. John J. Critter den, whose term of service will expire in 1861. As a matter of general interest we subjoin a list of the Senators who have represented Kentucky since its admission into the Union as a State in 1792:

John Adair, Mercer, 1805-06. Wm. T. Barry, : ayette, 1814-16. Geo. M. Bibb, Jefferson, 1811-14, 1829-35. Jesse Bledsoe, Bourbon, 1813-15. John Breckinridge, Fayette, 1801-05. John Brown, Franklin, 1792-05. Henry Clay, Fayette, 1806-07, 1810-11, 1831-42, 1849-52.

John J. Crittenden, Logan, 1817-19. John J. Crittenden, Franklin, 1835-41, 1842-49, 1854-61.

A. Dixon, Henderson, 1852-55. John Edwards, Bourbon, 1792-95. M. D. Hardin, Washington, 1816-17. R. M. Johnson, Scott, 1819-29. Wm. Logan, Shelby, 1819-20. H. Marshall, Franklin, 1795-1801. Thomas Metcalfe, Nicholas, 1848-49. James T. Morehead, Franklin, 1841-47. John Pope, Washington, 1807-13. Lazarus W. Powell, Henderson, 1859-66. John Rowan, Jefferson, 1825-31. John Buckner Thruston, Fayette, 1803-10. John B. Thompson, Mercer, 1858-59. Isham Talbot, Franklin, 1815-19, 1820-25. Joseph R. Underwood, Warren, 1847-53. George Walker, ----, 1814-15.

From this it will be seen that from December, 1798, the time at which the first elected Senators entered upon the discharge of their duties, to March 4, 1869, the close of the last session of Congress, Kentucky was entitled to one hundred and thirty-two years of Senatorial service. For more than ninety years of that time her Senators were chosen from the counties now included in the Eighth Congressional district. Twenty-four of her statesmen have worn Senatorial honors Of these thirteen were from this highly favored portion of the State. The Fifth district was represented fourteen years of that time; the Third, six years; the Second, three years; and the Seventh, fifteen years. We do not know the residence of George Walker, who served one session. The First, Fourth, Ninth and Tenth districts have never had a Senator in Congress.

County Meetings. We would again urge upon the Democracy of the State the importance of holding county meetings at an early day, and appointing delegates to the next Democratic State Convention. We regard our next Convention as one of the most important ever held in the State, and we desire to see in attendance a full representation of all

The people should attend the county meetings en masse, and take the management of the affairs of the Democratic party into their own hands Our party professes to be the party of the people, and in their primary assemblages they should, as they have always heretofore done, give full expression to their views on the leading political questions of the day. We know it is held by many that the resolu tions adopted at county meetings do not reflect the feelings of the people. Such declarations are doubtless made by those who wish to control the Democratic party in their own way, and who fear to trust the untrammelled action of the people. ition cannot be exercised in the selection of delegates to the Convention. Not Ottawa, by the Black Republicans: only should the county resolutions be sound, but sound men should be sent to Frankfert to carry them out. In regard to the instruction of delegates, we are daily more and more convinced that it is decidedly the best policy. There can be no occasion for jarring and discord when the Democracy in county meetings instruct their delegates in regard to the course they shall pursue. The only discord that can arise will be from the attempt of politicians to control the Convention despite the will of the people, and tois can be provided against effectually by resolutions of instruction. By so doing the union and harmony of the party will be preserved.

THE CALIFORNIA ELECTION .- Complete returns of the late election in California have been received. From all but Mendocino county the returns are official. The following are the aggregate results as to the principal offices: For Governor, Latham, Administration Democrat, 60,984; Curry, anti Lecompton Democrat, $1,282; Stanford, Republican, 10,128. For Congressmen, Burch, Adm., 57,926; Scott, Adm., 56,582; McKibben, A. L. D. and Rep., 48,414; Baker, do., 41,386. For State Printer, Botts, Adm., 56,998; O'Mears, Opp., 44,002. For a Convention, 42,822; against

EPISCOPAL IRREVERENCE AT RICHMOND .- A COT espondent of the Churchman inveighs vehemently against the careless way in which the religious pal Convention at Richmond. A huge demijohn stood under the communion table during the whole of the opening service, in full view of the congregation, while the alms were collected in an old Kossuth bat. After the communion at the communion of Bishop Odenheimer, the Electric and the other boys in his department, particular of his excitement, rose from their seats and

General greetings followed, clergy and laity entered the chancel and exchanged salutations. Honor was done to men, but great dishonor to God. There was done to men, but great dishonor to God. There upon the altar was left a large quantity of the consecrated elements, which had not been 'reverently consumed by the Bishop and other communicants as the Rubric directs. We looked on tremblingly for the issue. Soon the sexton came, and having gathered up at least three hundred pieces of consecrated bread and placed them in a napkin, he put them into a basket to be "carried out" of church to his house, probably to be given to dogs or beggars, or at least to be devoted to common and nuhallowed uses. The con-"carried out" of church to his house, probably to be given to dogs or beggars, or at least to be devoted to common and unhallowed uses. The consecrated wine was poured back into the demijohn, secrated wine was poured back into the demijohn, and the chalices (if they are worthy of the name), were turned up on the floor of the chancel to drain. Never did we behold such shocking irreverence! and such absolute disregard of the directions of the Church; and this with reference to the Holy Sacrament of the Altar. Surely they do not discern the Lord's body—surely they do not believe the doctrines of the church upon the subject, nor the doctrines of the church upon the subject, nor the doctrines of the church upon the subject, nor the doctrines of the church upon the subject, nor the doctrines of the church upon the subject, nor the doctrines of the church upon the subject, nor the doctrines of the church upon the subject, nor the doctrines of the church upon the subject, nor the doctrines of the church upon the doctrines of the church upon the subject, nor the doctrines of the church upon the subject, nor the doctrines of the church upon the church upon the doctrines of the church upon the church upon the doctrines of the church upon the c the doctrines of the church upon the subject, nor regard her solemn injunctions, or they would not do thus! Little do they think how earnest mindand thuse the pained when they behold such treverence to their Lord, and we have no doubt but that the great body of clergy and laity throughout the length and breadth of the land will be personal injury.—N. Y. Tribune, Friday. fectly horrified to hear that these things were done as described."

SUGAR AND COTTON .- A correspondent of the St. Louis Republican writes to that paper from the South as follows:

The croakers are at work, and "half crop" i now the ruling cry, notwithstanding the cane looks as well, if not better than last year, and in addition to which the amount of land devsted to this crop has been largely increased with a corresponding increase of bone and muscle. Mark me, the crop of sugar will be fully up to last year, all Prophecies to the contrary notwithstanding.
Some few plantations have commenced grind-

Some few plantations have commenced grinding, and a few hogsheads of the new crop have been received in New Orleans; ten hogsheads of which has been purchased by Capt. J. S. Dugan, of the enterprising house of J. S. Dugan & Co., of Cincinnati, and shipped on the J. C. Swon to Cairo, to be forwarded thence to Cincinnati, being the first shipment to the West of the new crop. Capt. Dugan is always first in the market and the last out of it.

The arrival of cotton up to this time is unprecedented. It came tumbling in in such vast quantities that it puzzled the factors to handle it. at the present rate four-fifths of the crop will be in before Christmas.

FREE PASSES-VERDICT AGAINST A RAILROAD COMPANY.—The verdict of the jury in the case of Mrs. W. Perkins against the Central Railroad Mrs. W. Perkins against the Central Railroad Company is $5,000 damages for plaintiff.

The question of a consideration being received by the Company for the ticket upon which Mr. Perkins rode, was not considered at all by the court. The judge said the jury would have no difficulty in finding whether Mr. Perkins rode upon a free ticket or not, and they were directed to find upon this fact separately. The jury found find upon this fact separately. The jury found that he was riding upon such a ticket, and assessed the damages to the plaintiff at $5,000—the max-

we believe that the approaching Convention We believe that the approaching Convention will be the largest, ablest, and most harmonious of the kind that has yet been held in the capital. It is right that it should be so. It has an important duty to perform. It must organize the Kentucky Democracy on a more durable basis. Hitherto we have acted merely as political militia-men, called out to serve in the grand army of Democracy of the state of the process of cattley down the Kentucky and the state of the server of the state of the server of the state of the server of the se cracy, for the purpose of putting down the Know Nothing insurrection. This is accomplished.— We must now re-organize our bands—put on the Democratic uniform. In brief, we must become Democratic uniform. In brief, we must become To effect this, the next convention will doubtless adopt a positive platform of principles on which To effect this, the next convention will doubtless adopt a positive platform of principles, on which the Kentucky Democracy is to stand in the approaching campaign; and this platform must embrace decided positions on the prominent political issues of the day. Washington ......11 Hopkins 11 Whitley Jackson 2 Woodford 5 efferson...... 769 A special dispatch to the Chicago Times he is designs of quitting business. ols dtn1 gives the following particulars of a fugitive slave day, by express, a new shipment of bayadere silks.

OTTAWA, ILL., Oct. 20.
A fugitive slave, belonging to Mr. Richard Phillips, of Missouri, was to-day, about 11 o'clock, A. n, rescued by prominent Republicans of this city om the United States Deputy Marshal for the outhern District of Illinois, in the presence of on. J. D. Caton, Chief Justice, at his chambers. The slave was brought from Union county before the Judge, on a writ of habeas corpus. J. N. Alright, Deputy Marshal, claimed to hold him uner a writ issued by the United States Commis-ioner of the Southern District of Illinois under the fugitive slave law. The prisoner was re-manded, and just as the Judge had finished mak-ing out the order, and before he had left the room, a fanatical crowd of Republicans rushed upon the Marshal, forcibly took the fugitive, and hurried him into a close carriage prepared for the occa-sion. The team went out of town on a run, with a crowd of Republicans following, hooting and relling. The Chief Justice, after giving his decision, made some remarks to the crowd, stating ast, although their sympathies might be aroused a behalf of the prisoner, he hoped, out of respect to himself, his friends and neighbors would not ttempt to violate any law; that he would recret to be made the unwilling instrument of bringing a person on a writ of habeas corpus into a place where the law could not be executed. His personal request and the mejesty of the law were, nevertheless, alike disregarded.

Panic in a Public School .- Yesterday afternoon there was a panic in Public School No. 12, situated on Adelphi street near Myrtle avenue, and extending the whole width of the block to Clermont avenue, which, under other circum stances, might have resulted very disastrously.— Fortunately none of the children were seriously injured. The building is one story in hight, the basement floor being devoted to the playground.
One of the boys, out of curiosity or mischief, ments left after all the communa. The writer says:

"Immediately after the blessing, strange transactions took pluce; first, some whispering between two Bishops right in trent of the altar, then a until the whole school was in a state of the greatest uproar and confusion. The children were entirely beyond the control of the teachers, who, although they used every means in their power to though they used every means in their power to ments left after all the communicants had partaken taking of his excitement, rose from their seats and were treated with irreverence. DEATH OF AN EXILE .- Col. Martin Rosienckie wicz, a distinguished Polish exile, died in Cin-cinnati on Saturday. His life was eventful. He was a Pole, of noble birth, and held in the Polish army a commission of Colonel. A devoted friend to freedom and the independence of his native land, his services to his country in that fatal struggle which resulted in the downthrow of Poland were rewarded by the Austrians with im-

Col. Martin Rosienckiewicz was born at Bubnow, in Poland, November 11, 1792, and was con-sequently in his 67th year. He arrived in this country with the expatriated Poles who were sent over by the French Government in its national vessels in 1832, having been for a year previous incarcerated in the Austrian prisons.

Vulcanite Base for Artificial Teeth ha been thoroughly tested and used in Eastern cities for the last four years, and proved, beyond a doubt, to be the best substitute ever used as a base for sets of teeth.

It possesses the following advantages over me talic plates : It is not more than half the weight of metal, is indestructible and perfectly cleanly .-The absolute certainty of fitting the mouth renders the old form of plate unnecessary, doing away with more than half the width, getting a better fit, and not at all impairing the taste, as is the case where the whole of the mouth is covered with a plate .-Its extreme lightness renders it particularly adapwith, we would say that if they will give us a trial we will guarantee them teeth with which they can eat and wear with ease and comfort. SPECIAL NOTICES.

IMPURE BLOOD .- All diseases, more or less find their origin in a merbid state of the blood; the purifying qualities of this celebrated medicine are highly recommended by the most eminent of the faculty. Manufactory, 80 Maiden Lane, New York.

PowerLESS For EVIL-POTEST FOR GOOD .- When pain r isflammation is present, and Brandreth's Pills are sed, they at once selze upon the humors which are the occasion of the pain and inflammation, and remove them from the body. This quality of a one seizing hold, and causing the expulsion of depraved humors is possessed by no other medicine. For Brandreth's Pills operate solely upon these impurities which surround and affect the tissues and organs affected by disease. By natural affinity, they seize these humors, because their life is below that of the surrounding parts, and expel them from the body. Young people cannot, but middle-aged and old people can, in a measure, appreciate that medicine which, being used in sickness, acts only upon the cause of the disease, and which has no ower except upon those humors whose presence prouces every pain, and whose removal removes every sease. Whatever organ is affected, there these wonderful pills penetrate, and remove impurities from; thus reventing settling of the humors, because they are removed from the body. In Rheumatism, Fevers, Pleurisies, Pains in the Side, Dyspepsia, Head aches, Dostiveness, Asthma, Sore Throats, Piles, Ulcers, Boils, they give immediate relief; and taken early, prevent organic disease. Maladies pronounced beyond human skill, have yielded to their influence, and millions of human lives have been saved by their timely use. Oh! how important in sickness to use that medicine which only extinguishes the disease, and leaves no evil effect Sold at Dr. Brandreth's Principal Office, No. 294 Ca-

The Patton, as usual, had a large lot of nuts for Cincinnati, to crack. The Hazel Dell, having been detained, takes her departure to Mound City, Cairo and Memphis this evening at 4 o'clock, from the Portland wharf.

The fast packet Moses McLellan is due from Memphis to-day. She is the regular Wednesday mail boat for Cairo and Memphis. The Empire City, on her way South, lost a hand overboard at Hawesville, on last Thursday night. His name was Daniel Duff, said to be a late of Virginia. There was a fight on the deck of the boat at the time of the casuality, and it was thought Duff was knocked overboard in the melec. One of the parties in the fight was O'Connell, from Cincinnati. He had his skull fractured, after first knocking his antagonist down with brass knucks. If that is true, he was served just right.

The Messenger and Hickman were due rom Memphis last night, with heavy cargoes of cotton for the East, all taken at the extreme low

TRADE AND FINANCE.

OFFICE OF THE LOUISVILLE COURIER. MONDAY EVANING, Oct. 24, 1859. The movements in the Money market indicate a arther improvement. Eastern Exchange is dull, but rates remain unchanged. The Cincinnati Commercial of to-day says:

The Unicinnal Commercial of to-day says:

The Bank of the State of Minnesota has failed. In commenting on it, the Debuque Herald says:

"We may now look for a general breaking up of the whole brood of the Minnesota Wild Cat concerns, and the people of that State will learn a lesson on the subject of banking which they will not soon forget."

A singular question was presented to-day in a case where several collection notes payable here were worded so as to be payable with or in Exchange on one of the Eastern cities. The drawers of the restern cities. worded so as to be payable with or in Exchange on one of the Eastern cities. The drawers of the notes tendered in payment, at the counter were the paper had been left, the checks of a responsible banking house on the point indicated; the checks were refused, as the parties holding them insisted on a recognized custom not to indorse, for collection papers, the 'rafts of another bank, in other words, not to guarantee the checks of another deaver.

The parties by whom the notes were given declined any other arragement than the literal fulfillment of the stipulations of the note, viz: To pay "with or in" Exchange, and the paper was consequently duly protested. The advantage gained would have been the difference between the rate which different Banks charge on Exchange. The point, or one nearly analogous, has, it is said, been before passed upon by one of our Superior Courts. But the drawer of the notes is quite sanguine of the correctness of his position, and the matter will doubtless go to the courts for decl.ion.

Blow was in good demand and pulces firm at $4.75\Pillow.

Flour was in good demand and prices firm at $4 75@ $5, the market closing with a buoyant tone. Bacon's in fair emand at 81/c for Shoulders and 111/c for Clear Sides. There is nothing doing in Hogs, our packers refusing pay $4 gross.

The following is from a Lafavette, Ind., paper: There has been, as yet, but one sale of Hogs in this market. Telford & Co. have purchased 1,330 Hogs, to werage over 200 pounds, at $4.

The new pork house in course of erection by Fowler, Earl, Brown, Telford and others, will be ready for laughtering about the middle of next month.

[From the St. Louis Democrat of yesterday.]
IE Hog TRADE, &c.—We think St. Louis packers will ully up with the times this year, if they were a little y last season. Although $4 50 net is the rate now ed of by them, and about what Cincinnati and Loue prices would seem to justify here, it is quite prob-as some of them intimate, they will pay even high-One of them has already contracted for 12,000 head lexandria, a considerable country packing point arge corn crop there and the scarcity of stock Ho rendering it necessary for the farmers to have advances there to buy stock Hogs to eat their corn. The Pope was to have an interview with the King of Naples at Castel Gondalfo, where he will prolong his stay, on account of the agitation reigning in Rome. After his departure from Rome, a demonstration took place in honor of the Sardinian Ambassador. A crowd of visitors, estimated at 10,000, left their cards at the Ambas-sador's residence. The Freuch gen Carmus preerved order, but the effect of the demonstration was profound.

The Ambassador was to leave on the 10th, when another silent demonstration was expected.

The Zurich Conference —A Zurich dispatch of the 11th, says: The conferences do not draw to close. Austria still refuses to diminish the amount of the debt of Lombardy to be borne by Sardinia.
The demands of Austria are not only resisted by Sardinia, but do not secure the support of France, who has proposed to submit the disputed point to the arbitration of snother power. No answer has yet been secured to this proposition. The French Government wishes the arrears of the Monte Napoleon and all the indemnity for the cost of the late war to be included in the settlement of the debt, which will have to be paid by Austria and Piedmont.

Turkey.—Additional discoveries have been made at Constantinople concerning the recent conspiracy for the assassination of the Sultan. It is asserted that incendiary machines have been discovered which were destined to burn the European part of the town. The Grand Vizier had tendered his resignation, but it was refused. It was evident, however, that the dissolution of the Ministry was inevitable. A new loan had been contracted under heavy conditions.

Tunis .- On the occasion of the obsequies of the late Bey of Tunis, the Moors assailed the Jews and wounded a few Christians. They also wound ed a minister of the new Bey, who had come to ed a minister of the new ney, who had bolled the rescue, with his escort, striking and killing many on the spot, and causing thirty of the Mus-selmen to be arrested. Tranquility finally pre vailed.
